

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

REGISTERED NURSE

Jewish Family Services of Northeastern New York (JFS) is seeking a part-time Registered Nurse for the Albany NNORC (Neighborhood Naturally Occurring Retirement Community)

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Conduct blood pressure screenings and provide opportunities for residents to discuss their health concerns at regularly scheduled times at various locations within the NNORC.
- Provide in-home visits to NNORC residents as needed to monitor acute and chronic health conditions.
- Maintain accurate records of service delivered to NNORC residents; collect related statistical information.
- Develop individual care plans when necessary and provide related healthcare case management.
- Communicate with agency colleagues and resident family members, as appropriate, regarding the health status of NNORC resident and additional services needed.
- Provide regular public health related programs to NNORC residents and participate in other NNORC programs, including immunization clinics, as needed.
- Create partnerships with local physicians and health care programs to identify homebound seniors and provide services and supports to these individuals.
- Stay current on research and trends related to health care for seniors, and assist in the development of new programs, in response to community needs and requests.
- Maintain client confidentiality in accordance with agency policy and federal law.
- Understand and practice agency mission and values.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Current NYS Registered Nurse license
- Experience in working with seniors; possess an understanding of the relationship between good physical, mental and emotional health and successful aging-in-place.
- Excellent communication and presentation skills; ability to collaborate well with team members, outside agencies and service providers
- Proficient with Microsoft Office 365
- Valid New York State driver's license with reliable, personal transportation. Ability to travel throughout the greater Capital Region, as needed.

For consideration, please submit a resume and cover letter to:

Jewish Family Services, Attn: Human Resources, 184 Washington Extension, Albany, NY 12203 or jginsburg@jfsneny.org

Competitive benefit packages include health insurance, vision, dental, and retirement plans. Flexible hours, including some evenings and occasional weekends; option to work remotely when possible

Jewish Family Services, a non-sectarian human service organization founded in 1854, provides professional services to assist all individuals and families of all backgrounds who are coping with life challenges and transitions. All potential employees of JFS subject to criminal background check.